

President Truman Will Deliver Memorial Day Address Here Next Year

President Harry S. Truman will deliver the Memorial Day address in the Gettysburg National cemetery in 1946.

Announcement of President Truman's acceptance of the invitation from the Sons of Union Veterans to deliver the address here next May 30 was made today following an official visit of a local committee to Washington on Friday.

The invitation was extended to the President through Senator Joseph F. Guffey by C. B. Dougherty who was invited to accompany J. E. Snyder, member of the local Sons of Veterans Memorial Day committee, to the nation's capital and invite the President.

President Truman had a full calendar of appointments on Friday and it was impossible to complete arrangements for an appointment for the local committee to personally extend the invitation.

Follows Precedent

Mr. Dougherty and Mr. Snyder conferred with Senator Guffey in his office in the Senate office building after which Senator Guffey conferred with the White House and extended the invitation. The President accepted the invitation and authorized Senator Guffey to announce the acceptance to Mr. Dougherty and Mr. Snyder.

William L. Meals, Esq., another member of the local Sons of Veterans committee instructed to go to Washington to extend the invitation, was unable to make the trip to Washington because of previous business commitments in Gettysburg.

In accepting the invitation to deliver the Memorial Day address here President Truman is following a precedent established many years ago by the nation's chief executives.

It has been the long-standing custom for Presidents to speak in the Gettysburg National cemetery on Memorial Day during their first administration and Mr. Truman is adhering to that time-honored precedent in accepting the invitation of the Sons of Union Veterans to come to this historic and hallowed shrine next May 30 to deliver the Memorial Day address.

Vet Weds In Church Where Requiem Was Sung For Him

In the same church in which a solemn requiem high mass was sung for him a year and a half ago, Eugene Joseph Weishaar, 26-year-old war veteran and son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Weishaar, Bonneauville, was married at 9 o'clock this morning to Miss Mary Elizabeth Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Weaver, Bonneauville.

The ceremony took place in St. Joseph's Catholic church at Bonneauville where in February, 1944, solemn funeral rites were conducted for Sergeant Weishaar, then reported to have died of injuries suffered in a motorcycle accident in the Mediterranean theater. Later, after his family received word that he was alive and well, Sergeant Weishaar read abroad in his copy of The Gettysburg Times about the requiem mass held for him in his home church.

The double ring ceremony was performed this morning at 9 o'clock by the rector, the Rev. Fr. Leo J. Krichen. The bride was given in marriage by her father, a Bonneauville merchant.

Bridal Gown

She wore a white satin gown made

on princess lines with a long train, sweetheart neckline edged with orange blossoms, and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was trimmed with rhinestones and lace. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and a pearl rosary which was a gift of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor was Mrs. Clement Hawn, Bonneauville, the bride's sister. Her gown was of orchid and was cut along the same lines as that of the bride. She carried a colonial bouquet.

Glenn Weishaar, of Gettysburg, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Donald McKim, John Eck, Leo Ginter and Nelson Weaver.

Also attending the bride were four bridesmaids, Mrs. Donald McKim, a sister of the groom; Mrs. Glenn Weishaar, and Misses Anna Topper and Bernice Gutowski, both of Baltimore. Mrs. McKim and Miss Gutowski wore blue and Mrs. Weishaar and Miss Topper pink gowns similar to that of the bride. All carried colonial bouquets.

Reception Tonight

The flower girl was little Miss Catherine Weaver, a sister of the bride, wearing pink trimmed with blue. Her brother, William, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was held at the Weishaar home and this evening there will be a reception at the bride's home. Then the couple will leave on a two-week wedding trip to Florida. The bride's going away suit was the colored with black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds. Upon their return they will reside in a newly-furnished home near Bonneauville.

Mr. Weishaar was discharged August 13 at Indiantown Gap after 50 months in the army, 34 of them in the European-Mediterranean theater.

The bride formerly was employed at the Glenn L. Martin plant in Baltimore as a war worker.

Methodists To Show Testament Pictures

The first of a series of sound motion picture films on New Testament texts will be presented at the Sunday evening vesper service in the Gettysburg Methodist church, it was announced today by the pastor, the Rev. Floyd A. Carroll.

Sunday evening's film will be "The Prodigal Son" and will follow the scriptural story found in the 15th chapter of Luke. The 22-minute film will take the place of the sermon in the regular evening service.

Other films to be used in the series on later Sundays this month include "A Certain Nobleman" on September 23 and "Who Is My Neighbor" on September 30.

Two Counties Are Granted Discharges

M-Sgt. Winfield D. Lippy, Littlestown R. 2, and T-5 Walter S. Mehning, 147 Lombard street, Littlestown, have received discharges from the army at Indiantown Gap.

Among those arriving at Indiantown for redeployment were Second Lt. George M. Wildasin, Abbottstown; T-4 Burnell E. Wildasin, New Oxford; T-5 Charles H. Pfaff, 140 East King street, Littlestown, and T-4 Robert L. Cline, Gardners R. 2.

LATE PEACHES ON FARMERS' MARKET TODAY

Late variety peaches were available at the Farmers' Market house this morning at prices ranging downward from $4.50 per bushel.

Brackett, late Libertas, Robertas and what growers said were the last of the Hales for the season could be had at from $3.50 to $4.50 a bushel at most of the fruit stands. The price per half bushel ranged from $2.50 to $1.75. Smokehouse apples brought $2.50 and $3.50 a bushel. Plums were 25 cents a box, 35 cents a quarter peck and 65 cents a half peck.

Egg prices climbed to 60 cents a dozen, a two-cent jump over last Saturday's figure. Fryers were fairly plentiful at 60 and 61 cents a pound and roasting chickens sold for 58 cents per pound.

Other Produce

Vegetables continued to be plentiful. Tomatoes were 15 cents a box and $1 to $1.25 a half bushel. Pumpkins brought 25 cents each; parsley, five cents a bunch; red beets, 15 cents a quart box; string and corn beans, 15 cents a box and from $1 to $1.50 a half bushel; sweet corn, 25 and 30 cents a dozen ears; shelled beans, 25 cents a pint; shelled limas, 30 cents a pint and 60 cents a quart; eggplants, 15 cents each; squash, from five to 20 cents each; green peppers, two for five cents; cabbage, eight cents a head and two for 15 cents at some stands; potatoes, 35 and 40 cents a half peck. Red raspberries sold for 50 cents a quart.

Zinnias and glads were on sale at several stands. The gladioli sold for $1 to $1.50 a dozen. Zinnias sold by the bunch.

'PHONE LOAD AT NEW PEAK

A shortage of help and the heavy service load the Gettysburg telephone exchange ever has been called upon to handle combine to make increasingly difficult the task of the 15 operators who are now handling work that would rush 20 girls. C. A. Bixler, Hanover district manager for the United Telephone company, said today.

From 700 to 750 long distance calls are handled daily through the Gettysburg exchange as compared with a usual 300 calls daily before the war, Mr. Bixler said. The seasonal load of calls incidental to the handling of the peach and apple crops in the county and the large number of returning servicemen are contributing factors, the phone company official said.

The already inadequate force of operators will be further reduced on September 15 when two of the girls are quitting, one to go to college. Three other inexperienced girls are being trained with a resultant slowing up of service, Mr. Bixler said.

"We know that telephone service here is not up to pre-war quality," Mr. Bixler said. "We need more trained operators but we're doing everything we can to render the best possible service under present conditions."

VACANCY FILLED ON LIBRARY BD.; 3,500 MEMBERS

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library association Friday evening at the court house, one new member was named to the board, another resigned and two of the county-appointed directors took up their duties as directors.

On recommendation of the East Berlin committee of the library association, the board named Miss Anna Hull of that place to fill the vacancy caused early in the summer by the resignation of Paul M. Schwartz, first director from East Berlin.

The board accepted with regret the resignation of Mrs. Brenda Walker, of Littlestown. Chairman O. H. Benson indicated that a recommendation will be sought from Littlestown members of the library association for a successor to Mrs. Walker.

Have 3,500 Members
Clyde McCauslin, Aspers, principal of the Franklin township consolidated school at Cashtown, and Miss Gladys Walter, Hamiltonban township, a school teacher at Orrtanna, were received as new members of the board. Both were appointed by the county commissioners who have designated a third representative on the board. The other appointee, who has not yet formally accepted the assignment, did not attend.

Chairman Benson told the board that Adams county now has the largest paid membership of any county library association in the state with approximately 3,500 members enrolled. He said 32 new members have been enrolled from East Berlin this week and reported on a community library meeting held Thursday evening at East Berlin when Miss Hull was recommended for the board position and Mrs. Charles Gentzler was selected as chairman of the library committee for that community.

The board directed the appointment of a committee to consider plans for a reception for Miss Kathryn Olier, the librarian, and also a "housewarming" for the new library quarters yet to be acquired. September 26 was set as the date for the next board meeting.

The 11 directors in attendance discussed further the problem of securing quarters for the library's main reading rooms and headquarters in Gettysburg.

MacArthur Shuns All Fanfare And Pomp As He Takes Over Tokyo

(By The Associated Press)

Tokyo, Sept. 8.—General MacArthur, shunning all fanfare as a conqueror, entered Tokyo today with fully armed troops of the First Cavalry Division and officially signaled the occupation of this war-wrecked city with a 10-minute flag raising ceremony.

The supreme commander of the Allied powers was stern of visage and firm of voice at the U. S. embassy grounds—within five minutes drive of Emperor Hirohito's palace—as he ordered:

"Have our country's flag unfurled and in Tokyo's sun let it wave in its full glory as a symbol of hope for oppressed and as a harbinger of victory for the right."

The general and his men, covering the last mile of the long road from Australia, came as the first foreign victors ever to enter this heart of surrendered Japan. In their hour of triumph, they were all business.

No Parade of Pomp

There was no parade of pomp. The word had been out that the men would march from the Diet building to the embassy.

Instead, they moved in so unostentatiously with their trucks, jeeps and weapons-carriers that the sight of the flag—the one which flew over the capitol in Washington, December 7, 1941, then in triumph over Rome and Berlin—was the first notice to many Tokyo residents that the Americans had come.

Maj. Gen. William C. Chase's proud First Cavalry Division had a huge sign ready, lettered "First Cavalry Division—first in Tokyo," as they waited at Chofu, on the southwest outskirts.

But they had to leave it hanging on a tree at the roadside.

Even guidons were removed from the armored vehicles in compliance with MacArthur's direction for a simple entrance. An attempt of a group of Texans to fly the Lone Star state flag brought a sharp reprimand from General Chase.

"Get that down—no flags," he said.

Even Tanks Are Left Behind

Tanks had rolled up to the outskirts. They halted there. MacArthur chose not to bring them in unless needed, to avoid further damaging Tokyo's streets.

The raising of the flag over the embassy grounds—rather than over a Japanese building such as the Diet, in the gesture of an arrogant conqueror—was impressive in its simplicity.

MacArthur's face, behind which he often hides his emotions, was of serious mien.

He arrived shortly before the 11 a. m. ceremony (10 p. m. Friday Eastern War Time) after motoring from Yokohama. His khaki-colored car with five stars rolled up a short incline within the embassy compound through an honor guard of the Seventh Regiment, First Cavalry Division, with fixed bayonets.

The guard extended from the embassy ground for two blocks. At the end of the line clusters of Japanese gathered in mild curiosity.

There had been little interest evidenced by the Japanese in the troops' arrival, not even among the groups of office workers in downtown Tokyo. They merely stared impassively at jeeps of reconnaissance elements which had "GHQ" printed on their windshields.

Halsey Accompanies MacArthur

MacArthur entered the grounds accompanied by Admiral Halsey, commander of the Third Fleet, and Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, whose Eighth Army is occupying central and north Honshu, including Tokyo.

They greeted General Chase.

MacArthur walked swiftly to a position in front of the ornate but now empty, lily pond in the center of the embassy compound.

The clear notes of "The General's March" floated over the quiet Azabu district from the First Cavalry band.

MacArthur then spoke his terse flag-raising order to General Eichelberger, who saluted.

Atop the chancellery building, 100 yards distant, three cavalry veterans stood on the twisted, rusted metal roof amid black embers. The building had been damaged by a B-29 fire raid May 25.

They slowly raised the flag up the 30-foot pole while the band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

No Japanese Are Present

Admiral Halsey stood silently at attention. His long, shaggy brows seemed shaggier still. A little later, he looked around the embassy garden, then stared in unabashed concentration at the flag as if thinking of the long, hard pull which had brought his Third Fleet to Tokyo bay.

MacArthur held a stiff salute until the flag reached the top. He seemed absorbed by the significance of the occasion. No Japanese were present.

Protected by a hillside, not a breath of wind ruffled the flag. It hung limply from the roof of the chancellery above blasted chimneys and ripped iron installations.

Lt. Col. Eugene Patrick Walsh, of Richmond, Va., stepped forward and prayed:

"On this historical day, as peace comes to all mankind, we humbly entreat the abundant blessings of Almighty God on all nations throughout the en-

SAYS JAPANESE CRIMINALS MUST WALK THE PLANK

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

A long, long line of Japanese warlords and other criminals must be made to walk the plank if we are to get lasting peace, and the sooner we square our jaws for the task, the better.

The amazing disclosure of how the militarists plotted and fought to prevent the Mikado from surrendering, even after the atomic bomb had demonstrated its annihilating power, shows the grip of militarism in Nippon. The barbarities which are being uncovered in the Japanese prison camps are in themselves enough to condemn the nation.

The whole nasty situation is well summed up in a statement by the Sultan of Johore, whose state lies just across the narrow strait from Singapore. He says the Japanese commander of the great naval base, Lt. Gen. Itagaki, declared a few days ago that he expected to return to Singapore about twenty years hence.

May Try Again

That's what the Allies are up against—the determination of the Jap militarists to try again to conquer Asia.

The melodrama of the militarist plots to hamstring the Mikado might have been written by Gilbert and Sullivan—except that it lacks the humor. It's grotesque, but wholly grim, even involving the almost unbelievable scene of numerous kamikaze (suicide) pilots driving to their deaths in Tokyo bay as a protest after the surrender had been announced.

Russel Brines, an Associated Press correspondent in Tokyo, reports from a well-informed Japanese source that fanatical young Japanese officers on August 14 even assassinated the commanding general of the Emperor's personal guards in their attempt to prevent the imperial announcement of surrender from reaching the public. Having killed the general, they forged his name to an order and sent troops to surround the palace, but the scheme failed.

Encouraging Note

The fact that a strong element, including Emperor, stood for peace is encouraging to the Allies. We have our warning, however, in the strength of the militarists.

Then there's another lesson which we shouldn't overlook, and that is the tremendous power wielded by the spiritual-temporal ruler of the empire. We already knew that his hold on people was great, for they regard him literally as a living god. But never before has the world had such a demonstration of his influence as is shown in the sensational circumstances surrounding the battle in Tokyo over the surrender.

Japs On New Guinea Became Cannibals

Brisbane, Sept. 8 (AP)—Japanese troops in New Guinea ate the flesh, livers and brains of their Indian prisoners, rescued Indian officers asserted Friday.

The Indian officers, freed from Wewak and now at Queensland rest camp, include Capt. Ru Perzard, Dr. Subadar Jurchuran Singh and Jemadar Oasin, all captured by the Japanese at Singapore.

Of three hundred Indian prisoners taken to Wewak, New Guinea stronghold of the Japanese, only 50 lived, the officers said. Nineteen, they asserted were sent outside the compound to search for food, then were killed and eaten by the Japanese.

THINK CRASHED AIRPLANE FIRST WAS IN FLAMES

Florence, S. C., Sept. 8 (AP)—Military authorities and officials of the Eastern Air Lines investigating the crash of a big DC-3 transport which brought death to 22 persons near here said today the plane might have been aflame before it plowed into a dense swampland.

The plane, making the night run from Miami to New York, crashed about 2 a. m. yesterday in a heavily wooded cypress swamp about eight miles northwest of Florence as the pilot searched for a place to make an emergency landing.

At least nine service men were reported aboard the plane.

The pilot, Capt. J. Olin King of Miami, radioed the Florence air base a few minutes before the huge north-bound plane crashed that he was "having trouble" and would attempt to land there.

A Navy blimp led searchers to the scene of the accident after a 10-hour quest. Army and civilian aircraft also had aided in the search.

Heard Explosion

Mrs. W. L. Rankin, who lives on a nearby plantation, said she heard a loud explosion followed by several lesser ones about 2 a. m. and immediately notified authorities.

The bodies, all except one burned beyond recognition, were brought to Florence, where efforts were made for individual identification.

The air base in a statement said it was believed that 10 of the victims were military personnel, but the EAL gave the number of service men aboard as nine.

The public relations officer at the air base said the names of the service men would be announced later.

Co-pilot of the plane was R. A. Kelley, the third crew member was Gertrude Graham, flight attendant.

The civilian passenger list as announced by EAL included:

M. Sheinfeld and L. F. Cockburn, Miami; W. E. Gray, Standard Oil company, Miami; Robert Stevenson and his mother, Mrs. G. G. R. Sharp of Kingston, Jamaica; Andrews Gerard and Louisa Gerard, French citizens enroute to New York; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Figueredo, Caracas, Venezuela, and W. E. Pierce, who boarded the plane at Jacksonville.

SOLDIER SAYS HE BEAT GIRL

Uniontown, Pa., Sept. 8 (AP)—A discharged war veteran was arrested and made a statement, state police said today, that he had beaten Anna Elizabeth Dreyer, 17, and left her in the underbrush along a country road where her body was found by searchers.

Capt. Andrew Hudak of the state police identified the man as Frederick I. Hauser, 19.

A Beaver county farmer, Leonard Hobbs, of Frankfort Springs, aided in the arrest at his farm. Hobbs had yesterday a companion a ride yesterday as they were hitchhiking. Hobbs saw Hauser's picture in a newspaper and notified the state police.

State Police Capt. Charles H. DeWitt said Hauser told of meeting Miss Dreyer, known to friends as the "Sunshine Girl" of Fayette City, and offering to drive her home from a Monessen restaurant where she worked.

DeWitt said Hauser gave this version:

They drove out the Fayette City-Connellsville road and parked. The girl fought off his advances, and the man beat her with his fists "four or five times." Miss Dreyer dropped to the ground and he dragged her into the machine. Unable to revive her, he drove two miles further where he dragged her, nude except for one shoe, to the underbrush.

He then took the girl's belt, a gift from her brother serving with the armed forces in Germany, and looped it around her throat.

Driving further, he threw the girl's purse and parts of her clothing into the woods.

As the prayer ended, MacArthur's serious expression gave way to a smile.

What Motorists Are Asking
Q. I have been told by several experienced motorists and service men that it is normal for an older engine to show a lower reading of the oil pressure gauge. Is this safe advice? A. A. G.

A. Reasonably safe, yes. But always check the oil pressure regulator as it may have a weak spring. Much low pressure is due to greatly increased dilution of the oil, due in turn to wear on rings and cylinder walls. If the oil pump is serviced always replace the whole unit, not just its gears.

Q. How are new sleeves installed in the cylinders of my car? H. I. Jr.
A. A special puller is needed for this job, and the work is something for those familiar with the car in question.

Tests Vacuum Pump

If the fuel pump of your car carries a vacuum pump for boosting windshield wiper action you will naturally wonder if it is working properly. There are several warnings of inefficiency. One, of course, is slowing down of the windshield wiper when hill climbing or when the car is traveling at a lively clip. Another is greatly increased oil consumption. A third is engine misalignment, due to the oil sucking into the intake and fouling the plugs. A very small hole in the diaphragm of the vacuum pump is indicated by a partial miss of the cylinders nearest the point where the vacuum line taps into the intake manifold. You can double check on all this by disconnecting the manifold line from the pump and noting if oil comes out when the engine is run.

The "Why" Of It

No fuse is placed in the circuit between the battery and the starter-motor because the current consumption along this line is too great.

It is not advisable to use reliners in new tires because they are rough on inner tubes. A reliner in an old shoe, used with an old natural rubber inner tube, is all right for an emergency or for use as a spare.

Backfires in starting are rough on the starter-motor shaft, tending to bend it. When this happens the shaft and commutator should be replaced.

When The Float Binds

Motorists who like to delve into the oddities will be interested in the fact that sometimes the float in a carburetor will bind against the side of the float bowl. Where this happens there is constantly a low level of fuel. This will not necessarily interfere with the normal operation of the engine because the fuel pump may handle the supply in good order. That is, the engine may practically run from the intermediate supply of fuel in the bowl. But in starting, or when a large quantity of fuel is required, the half empty bowl will cause a lot of delay. The engine then has to be cranked until the bowl fills enough to provide fuel for the choked motor. Fuel consumption is high at this time.

There is a special gauge which will measure the float.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST
JOY-STEALERS
I guard my purse, lest it may be
In one swift moment snatched from me.

My watch and ring and treasures few
I closely keep, as wise folks do.

But, any fellow so inclined
Can steal from me my peace of mind.

And rob me of my senses good,
Though I could stop him if I would.

A bitter word or fancied slight
Will keep me tossing through the night.

And for the balance of the day,
Keep happiness from me away.

That's too much power to bestow
On anybody, friend or foe.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
THAT BACKBONE OF YOURS
Herman Melville, in his book "Moby Dick" makes many a wise observation. Here is one: "I believe that much of a man's character will be found in his backbone."

The Backbone is undoubtedly the most wonderful human highway in all this world! It holds up the man, culminating its most important office by helping him to keep his head on straight! So important is the Backbone that people have made a phrase out of it, as when they say that he has a weak or stiff Backbone, meaning a weak or strong character, as Melville has suggested.

Break this great bony structure and it often is fatal. Even a bad injury is most serious. But what is a noble piece of architecture it is in health! It is tragic that some men abuse it as they do, and women as well. Keep it upstanding and half the battle of life is won in advance. Upon it is perched the noblest creation of the great Creator—man's head, within which, destinies of nations often are pivoted. And here are centered all the mighty elements of the Mind.

The soldier is trained to keep that Backbone of his upright and "straight as a ramrod." And does he need it in many an emergency, when called upon suddenly to assert his mind and character! You can't travel far with a weak Backbone. You catalog a man at once when you hear the statement: "That man has Backbone."

He who walks straight forward, looking neither to the right, nor the left, with purpose in his heart, and resolution in his mind, is a brave man. You do not need to question the sort of Backbone he owns and controls.

Study the structure of this remarkable example of engineering on the part of the Creator. Note how each section, of its entire length, has an office to perform. Nerves, fibrous tissue, and bony structure, as well as its canal of precious fluid, have an effect upon the entire body that is little realized. But just let any part of its make-up get out of order and it is noticed aplenty!

What a gift you have in that Backbone of yours! Keep it well in order. You can never get another.

TEN YEARS AGO

Couple Weds Here: Miss Julia B. Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas Newman, Two Taverns, and Clarence H. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Myers, of Carroll county, were married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of Grace Lutheran church, Two Taverns, on East Middle street, by the Rev. J. M. Myers.

New School Principal: William B. Mickle, Chambersburg street, has accepted a position as principal of the new Stonewall district consolidated school, Frederick county, Virginia.

Paul L. Roy Gives Stirring Speech: The radio world, just before noon on Wednesday, heard hearty applause greet an invitation extended by Paul L. Roy, of Gettysburg, to the forty-fifth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans at Amarillo, Texas, to attend a joint reunion here in 1938 in observance of the diamond jubilee of the Battle at Gettysburg.

Late in the afternoon Mr. Roy telegraphed The Gettysburg Times as follows:

"Gettysburg invitation has been unanimously accepted. Cordial reception given. I am leaving today for Grand Rapids, Michigan, to extend the same invitation to the Grand Army of the Republic, which holds annual convention there next week."

Wed in Westminster: Miss Roxie Kessler and William Goodermuth, both of Gettysburg, were married Saturday afternoon in Westminster. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George A. Early, a minister of the Brethren church, at his home. The young couple were accompanied by friends from Gettysburg.

Miss Mildred Deardorff Weds Upper Darby Teacher: Miss Mildred E. Deardorff, daughter of Harry W. Deardorff, Cashtown, and Lester A. Sessemann, of Lititz, were married Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the parsonage of the Rev. George Berkheimer, Arendtsville, pastor of Flohr's Lutheran church. The bride's father was the only attendant.

For four years Mr. Sessemann has been teaching music in the Upper Darby junior high school.

1548 Borough Pupils Return to Classrooms: On Tuesday 1548 school children of Gettysburg answered the call of the classroom for the opening of the 1935-36 term. For the first time in the recent history of Gettysburg schools, furnaces were going in the various buildings on the first day of the fall session. With rain falling and the mercury in the sixties, the furnaces were ordered stoked so that the children would not suffer from cold classrooms.

Two hundred and fifty-six children were enrolled at St. Francis Xavier parochial school at the opening of the new school there. Preceding the opening of school, the children attended a mass at St. Francis Xavier Catholic church at 8 o'clock.

Recital in Chapel: Miss Virginia Storrick, West Lincoln avenue, will give a piano recital in the chapel in St. James Lutheran church on Saturday afternoon. She will be assisted by Mrs. Roy E. Zinn, Hanover street. Mrs. Howard A. Stauffer, Baltimore street, will be the accompanist for Mrs. Zinn.

County Girl Weds Teacher: Miss Loretta Raffensperger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Raffensperger, of Biglerville, and Harold I. Kline, son of C. W. Kline, of Martinsburg, West Virginia, were married at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. W. Sternat.

Mrs. Kline has taught English in the Ardmore schools for eight years and Mr. Kline has been an instructor in history and athletic coach in the Ardmore junior high school for eight years.

Firemen Held Delayed Parade and Picnic: Several hundred Adams county firemen, together with about 15 pieces of fire-fighting apparatus, participated in a parade at Bon-neauville Saturday evening. The parade was to have been held on Monday in connection with the annual meeting of the Adams county firemen's association, but was postponed on account of rain.

After the parade, a largely-attended picnic was held at Myers' grave near Bonneauville.

To Study Music: Miss Genevieve Cluck, of McKnightstown, has enrolled at Susquehanna university, where she will study music.

Enters Medical School: Edward C. Beard, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Beard, Carlisle street, has enrolled as a student in the medical school at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

Personal: Mrs. Mervin U. Bream, North Stratton street, has returned from the Reading hospital where she underwent an operation some time ago.

Miss Ruth Scott and Mrs. S. Huber Heintzelman entertained ten guests at a dinner-bridge Friday evening at the Flora Dale tea room.

400,000 NAZI WAR CRIMINALS MAY BE TRIED

Washington, Sept. 8 (AP)—As many as 400,000 Nazis may be tried for war crimes when the Allies deal justice to the architects and terrorists of World War II, it was disclosed today.

Guilty big shots probably will be hanged. The military regards shooting as "an honorable death."

Small fry who get off with their skins may be given labor sentences, perhaps helping to rebuild what they destroyed in Russia and elsewhere.

Hitler's terror organizations, the Gestapo and the SS (Elite Guard), will be charged collectively with war crimes. Conviction would mean automatic punishment of any member of either outfit who couldn't prove he was forced in.

These and other details were learned authoritatively today by persons familiar with the plans as the Allied War Crimes Commission moved toward the master trial at Nuernberg.

Mass Trial

This will be a mass trial of top culprits, like Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering. It will begin in late October or November in the city which was for years the scene of the Nazi party's annual congress.

Twenty-four, including Goering, have been named defendants. Half a dozen more are likely to be added. Nuernberg will set the pattern. Thereafter, lesser assorted murderers and conspirators will be tried—many possibly at the scenes of their crimes, as in Warsaw where the Nazis burned the entire ghetto.

Tons of German official documents have been culled. Investigators believe many a German may have written his own death warrant in meticulous official reports of mass murders.

About 250 Reporters

Day after day, as the evidence is presented at the master trial, copies of these reports will be given to the 250 reporters who will be admitted.

And pictures as well will be offered. From Hitler's personal photographer which tell their story of top level Nazi knowledge and guilt.

Surprisingly, in the view of some American officials, the French were slow to join the U. S.-championed position that offensive war is a crime—although France has been invaded thrice in a life time.

Ponder Necessity

Some of the Russians wondered why any trials were necessary. To them the guilt seemed obvious.

A strong segment of British opinion earlier inclined to the Russian view.

The chief war crimes prosecutor for the United States is Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson. He stated the American belief thus:

"If we can inculcate the idea that aggressive war making is the way to the prisoner's dock rather than the way to honors, we will have accomplished something toward making the peace more secure."

Mexico's most important exports consist of oil, minerals, fibers, coffee, bananas, cattle, hides, and chicle.

troubled with clutch chattering in spite of the fact that the clutch has been pulled down three times. After each job it is smooth for awhile. My work as rural mail carrier calls for making about 400 stops per day. I recently had the brakes relined. Do you think there may be some dragging, just enough to strain the clutch? G. R.

A. Your point about the brakes is interesting but since the strain would just be long enough for the brake drums to expand away from the shoes I don't feel that we can look to this for the cause of your trouble. My belief is that the engine heats up just enough to cause expansion of some clutch part. If the clutch case is cracked, for instance, expansion would cause misalignment.

Q. My car pulls to the right in spite of careful alignment. R. C. C.

A. Check for a bent spindle, bent steering arms or bent frame.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him care of The Gettysburg Times and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply.

Nanking, Sept. 8 (AP)—Indica-tions today were that the official Japanese surrender in China would take place in this capital Sunday, (Chinese time) and an American spokesman made it clear it will be a "100 per cent Chinese show."

"The Americans have been or-dered to stay in the background and let the Chinese run it," said Brig. Gen. H. L. Boatner of New Or-leans, La., deputy commander of the Chinese-American gombat com-mand, who arrived here Thursday.

A comparatively small number of Chinese, assisted by U. S. troops, will accept the surrender, and Gen. Boatner, commenting on this, said that "never in the history of the world" had there been a military situation such as the one now ex-isting in China.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Paramount's newest film musical, "Out of This World," due Monday at the Majestic theatre, has a galaxy of gags and girls all tied together in a neat little story in-volving Eddie Bracken, Veronica Lake and Diana Lynn—that's the claim of previewers.

A number of specialty acts contribute to the novelty of the show including a keyboard feature spot-lighting Carmen Cavallaro, Ted Florito, Henry King, Ray Noble and Joe Reichman. That human dynamo, Cass Daley, gives out with her hilarious contortions and there's also Olga San Juan doing the rumba in true South American style.

Insiders say the big surprise is Bracken. He sings with Bing Crosby's voice dubbed in and makes the 'teeners swoon.

WEDNESDAY

"That's the Spirit," announced as one of Hollywood's most original and out-of-the-ordinary comedy-dramas, comes Wednesday to the Majestic theatre. Jack Oakie and Peggy Ryan are co-starred. Seen prominently in the supporting cast are June Vincent, Arthur Treacher, Gene Lockhart and Johnny Coy. Two outstanding movie headlines, Andy Devine and Buster Keaton, have conspicuous roles.

"That's the Spirit" deals largely with the experiences of a vaude-ville magician who passes from the mortal scene soon after marriage and finds himself in heaven. How his spirit eventually returns to earth and regulates the affairs of his daughter and his former wife, is said to be ingeniously contrived.

Frank Sinatra, co-starred with Kathryn Grayson and Gene Kelly, in "Anchors Aweigh."

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Frank Sinatra and Gene Kelly sing and dance their way through one of the gayest, most romantic musicals of this or any other year in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new technicolor hit, "Anchors Aweigh," which opens Thursday at the Ma-jestic theatre. They are most ably aided by their beautiful co-star, Kathryn Grayson, in this happy new hit.

Clarence Doolittle (Sinatra) and Joe Brady (Kelly) are a couple of sailors on a four-day leave from an aircraft carrier anchored off San Diego. Clarence idolizes Joe, not only because the older sailor once rescued him from drowning, but also because Joe is the ship's "master wolf."

The supporting players include Dean Stockwell, Pamela Britton, the waitress from Brooklyn, Rags Ragland, Billy Gilbert, Henry O'Neill, Carlos Ramirez and Edgar Kennedy.

AMERICAN LOOP RACE NARROWS TO TWO TEAMS

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Barring a baseball miracle, the American league race has narrowed down to a two-way stretch between Detroit and Washington with St. Louis, New York and Cleveland on the brink of elimination.
Only unexpectedly strong comebacks by the Browns, who are six games back, and the Yankees, who trail by 6½ lengths, could save them from the disaster suffered in their series with the Senators and Tigers.
Cleveland was given an outside chance at the big money when Bobby Feller returned but a double loss to St. Louis Labor Day and three defeats in four starts at Boston have snuffed out tribal hopes.
George Case all but ran St. Louis out of the park at Washington last night stealing three bases, including a theft of home, in a 3-2 razor-thin verdict for Roger Wolff over Bob Muncief. The argument over Case's theft of home in the first inning became so heated that Umpire Joe Rue chased catcher Frank Mancuso.

Hal Again Ready
Detroit's aching back pitching staff continued to make life miserable for the Yank sluggers. Hal Newhouse, fresh from a series of examinations by the Motor City medicos, threw his high hard one past the home club, turning in a neat four-hit, 5-0 game to assure the Bengals of the seven-game series. The Tigers captured four out of six with one to be played today.
Although Newhouse said later his back tightened up a bit in the late innings, there was no reason to think he wouldn't take a regular turn the rest of the way. In Detroit's 22 remaining tilts, Dizzy Trout, who pitches today, and Newhouse are slated to work 11 times.
The Yankees are witnesses to the fact that, with either Trout or his Southpaw teammate on the hill, Steve O'Neill's gang really looks like a championship outfit.
Mike Ryba, Boston's venerable handy man, doused Cleveland with a three-hit cap of whitewash, 1-0, outpointing Mel Harder. Philadelphia copped both ends of a twin bill from Chicago, 4-3 and 9-2 with the help of five White Sox boots. Bill Connolly, a 19-year-old lad from Alberta, Va. registered his first big league triumph in the opener and Charley Gassaway copped the finale.

Cubs Lead Pared
St. Louis pared the Chicago Cubs' National lead to four games by blanking Boston on George Dockins' three-hitter, 4-0, after New York's Sal Maglie had handcuffed the Bruins, 2-0, for his third shutout in six major league starts.
Tom Seals and Art Herring teamed up on Pittsburgh to hurl Brooklyn to a 3-2 decision after the Dodgers had their daily spat with the umpires. Tom Dunn gave Dixie Walker and Augie Galan the heavenly early in the fray.
The Phillies and Cincinnati split another double bill, the Reds coping the first, 6-2 for Joe Bowman and the Phils easing out an 8-6 margin in the finale despite two homers by Eddie Miller. Only 675 fans were present.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Sept. 8 (AP)—From this second-guessing vantage point it appears that the national collegiate AA "skulled one" badly last winter by not formulating a rule on eligibility of service men returning to college athletics. . . . Even then it was obvious that the athletic directors had widely divergent ideas on the subject. But they didn't do anything to reconcile them. . . . Now the Southeastern conference, which adopted a no-transfer rule, has found it necessary to call a Sept. 25 meeting to reconsider. . . . The American Legion has protested and so has Auburn, which stands to lose such players as H. M. Smalley, who attended Alabama less than a month and then played at Oklahoma U. and Leonard (Shine) Robinson, whose previous experience was at Troy, Ala. Teachers, a school that doesn't have football now.

TECHNICAL K. O.
When Lt. Leo Houck, Jr., a glider pilot who engaged in every major airborne invasion prior to Germany's surrender, came home unexpectedly after 17 months in the European theater, his father, veteran Penn State boxing coach, slouched to the floor in a faint. . . . When he revived, Leo, Sr., who is very proud of his stand-up record in 200 fights, explained apologetically: "That was my first trip to the canvas."

SPORTS BEFORE YOUR EYES
The Southern association has drawn over a million attendance this year for a 140-game season. In five previous years when the loop passed the 1,000,000 mark each club played 154 games. . . . That leaves observers wondering why the Southern wants to jump into "AA" classification, where expenses will be bigger but the crowds probably won't. . . . Mike Karakas, the Chicago Blackhawks goalie, is parking lot attendant at Rockingham park. So is George Army, the Rhode Island Reds' trainer. . . . Showing unusual optimism, Columbia's Lou Little maintains that his new passer, Gene Rossides, has the same stuff as Sid Luckman and Paul Gornall did when they came out of high school.

The Thoroughbred Racing associations' Alex Robb comes up with this one about a race track clocker who took a war job timing shells for the army. . . . "Huh," grunted a skeptical pal when he heard of this, "he'll hold out the best ones for himself."

30 CANDIDATES SEEKING BERTHS ON MAROON 11

Additional candidates, who reported to Coach Bill Ridinger at Gettysburg high school this week have boosted the varsity squad to a total of 30 hopefuls.
Included among the group was Bob Heyser, guard, a letterman from last year.
Also included in the newcomers are Walter Wolfgang, back; Don Bucher, back; Bob Taylor, end; David Raffensperger, end, and Wilmer Sharrar, tackle.
Blocking and tackling has been the keynote of most of the drills this week. The first dummy scrimmage was held Thursday evening.
Switched To Tackle
Coach Ridinger is experimenting with Donald Raffensperger, center last year, at one tackle position with Eugene Cole moving into the center slot. He is also experimenting with George Gorman as an extra-point specialist. Gorman may be used only in tries for extra points or field goals due to his fine drop-kicking ability.
The Maroon mentor has been working with Al McDonald and Nelson Mattingly who show much promise as punters. Practically all of the backs have shown ability in passing and picking out the most accurate will be a future task for Coach Ridinger.

There is a definite need of ends, at least one tackle and a reserve center.
Will Meet Cannons
After next week it is expected that weekly drills with "Hen" Bream's Bigville high school team will be made a part of the program.
Coach Ridinger stated today he had been impressed by the continued fine spirit shown by the entire squad. He invites local fans to attend drills for the present.
